Banks lift financial restrictions on Beximco firms

In a move to sustain industrial production and maintain market stability, Bangladesh Bank extended policy support and relaxed financial restrictions under the Bank Company Act for two Beximco Group companies Shinepukur Ceramics and Beximco LPG Unit-1. The two companies have been exempted from complying with Section 27Kaka(3) of the act, a move expected to ease difficulties in opening letters of credit (LCs) and securing working capital to import raw materials.

Stocks rise as oil prices tumble after Trump hails 'energy ceasefire'

Most stock markets rose on Monday as oil prices tumbled after Donald Trump announced an "energy ceasefire" between Russia and Ukraine, offsetting a fresh wave of Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia. Both main crude contracts sank more than 1% following the US president's declaration, even as it sparked astonishment in Kyiv, which also said Moscow had struck multiple power plants in the country.
